Dropbox

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am enthusiastic about the Principal Product Designer position at Dropbox. With over 28 years of digital design experience across thirty-five industries, my career focuses on crafting human-centered solutions that simplify and improve user experiences. My extensive and unique background in digital design aligns seamlessly with Dropbox's mission of designing an enlightened way of working.

At HamiltonBerchman and Art+Logic Inc., I led hundreds of projects that intersected user needs with business objectives, much like the role at Dropbox. My approach to design—balancing business goals with an emphasis on user experience—has led to successful products and solutions. My expertise in UI/UX design, leading cross-functional teams, and mentoring designers positions me ideally for the work you've described. I'll add that my portfolio demonstrates my capability to ship customer-centric experiences that significantly impact business outcomes.

Thank you for considering my application. I am eager to bring my skills and experiences to Dropbox, contributing to innovative projects that resonate with users globally. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or further information.

I look forward to discussing how my expertise aligns with the exciting opportunities at Dropbox.

Sincerely,

Joseph Bert Mahoney
